PREFERENTIAL CLAUSE
CONDITIONS

As long as the funder-beneficiary has a claim upon the policyholder and/or insured party, any payments pursuant to the aforesaid policy will be made to the funder-beneficiary up to the maximum amount of the claim unsatisfied at the moment of payment, with the proviso that all claims of the Insurer always take precedence.

The funder-beneficiary will inform the Insurer in writing as soon as the policyholder and/or insured party no longer have any obligations toward the funder-beneficiary.

In case of any alterations to the insurance, the Insurer will so inform the funder-beneficiary as soon as possible, except in case of cancellation or suspension due to non-payment of premium by the policyholder.

In case of cancellation of this insurance or notice of default due to the policyholder's failure to pay premium, the funder-beneficiary will be so informed in writing by registered letter that will be sent the same day as the registered letter is sent to the policyholder and/or insured party.

In case the policyholder and/or insured party notify the Insurer that they are cancelling the policy, the funder-beneficiary will be so informed in writing by the Insurer as quickly as possible. The policyholder and/or insured party also undertake immediately to so inform the funder-beneficiary.

In case of non-payment of premium the Insurer will send the policyholder and/or insured party a notice of default by means of a registered letter sent through the mails in which the policyholder and/or insured party are given an additional amount of time of no more than 14 days to pay the premium and costs of collection. Cover is suspended by action of law by the mere fact of the passage of this period of time.

The unpaid portion of premium, in precisely the same way as every other premium that falls due during the period of suspension because of non-payment, that relates the unincurred risk, is payable to the Insurer as penalty, because of the delay and as intervention for the collection costs incurred.

The cover that is suspended as described above takes effect once again only as of 00.00 o'clock of the day following payment in full of all sums owed and collection costs.

The Insurer undertakes to inform the funder-beneficiary as soon as the premiums owed are paid in full.

The Insurer will inform the funder-beneficiary as quickly as possible of all accidents reported on it.

All other conditions for the insurance policy, both general as well as special, and optional conditions as well as conditions as stated on the policy sheet remain unchanged in effect.
